Killed by Accident.

Young Bob Beadles, of near Roper in Hickman county, is dead from the wound of a pistol shot accidentally discharged while in his possession Saturday last. Young Beadles and some companions were cleaning some revolvers when Beadles was about to make a demonstration of how he would use his gun, and as he drew it from his pocket it discharged, the bullet passing through his throat, dying in a few minutes later. He is a son of Dr. Beadles, of Beerton. The accident is to be regretted.

Speight Leaves the Track.

As the Leader predicted a few days ago, J. C. Speight, of Mayfield, Republican candidate for Congress against Hon. Ollie James, and who has been touring this section in joint debate with Mr. James, has enough drubbing and has jumped the track and gone home or somewhere else. He spoke at Bardwell yesterday, but came here last night on his way home, having cancelled his other speeches with Mr. James.—Saturdays Fulton Leader.

Leg cut off.

Monroe Carroll, a popular young man of Moscow, Ky., met with a serious accident there last night. From reports that reached Fulton Mr. Carroll attempted to board a freight train for Union City and missed the step, falling under the train, the wheel passing over and severing his right leg from his body. Mr. Carroll is day agent for the M. & O. railroad at Moscow and well known here. His condition is dangerous.—Saturdays Fulton Leader.

Baby Jumped From Train.

Houston, Tex., Oct. 13.—A baby leaped from the arms of its mother out of a window of the International Great Northern World's Fair train yesterday morning while it was running at the rate of 50 miles an hour. The woman's screams stampeded the passengers, and the train was stopped five miles beyond the mishap. The baby was found practically unharmed.—Ex.

[Note—This may be true but it sounds rather fishy to us.]
